Legal notices, along with all advertising services, are not taxable within the State of Washington. Legal notices, classifieds and display advertising deadline is 10 a.m. Monday prior publication. (NOTE: It is common for staff to include late-arriving or after-deadline notices. Prior notice is appreciated.)

The Sunnyside Sun, long recognized as the local community newspaper for Sunnyside residents, continues to be the largest paper of circulation for not only Sunnyside but our surrounding communities. Legal notices are offered to the reading public in numerous ways, including the weekly print edition, our e-edition and through a statewide network administrated by the Washington Newspaper Publishers Association.

The vast majority of Washington communities utilize weekly newspapers as their source for publishing legal/public notices, often because of price but also of the knowledge that the local newspaper is often their best method of reaching their core audience. We would presume the City's position of offering preference to multi-day publications is to enable the City to begin publication of a notice on a specific day most beneficial to the City. The need for this, in our observations, is relatively rare. We look forward to attending the bid opening where we can best present our qualifications.
